Art. 4 AUDITIONS

Auditions will take place in alphabetical order as indicated on a list which will be published online (www.glasbenamatica.org) at least one week before the start of the competition. It is the competitors' duty to check when it is their turn to perform. The organizing committee does not assume responsibility in case competitors do not show up. The competitors or groups must arrive at the competition secretariat for registration before the start of auditions for their category. They will be given 3 copies of the scores, the order of performance and a document for identification purposes. Every competitor will need to bring the original score to the competition, otherwise she/he will be forbidden to participate. The responsibility for any score copies is on the candidates. Latecomers will not be allowed to take part in the competition. Competitors are not allowed to play unpublished pieces. Competitors do not have the right to receive compensation in case the competition or the final concert is broadcast on the radio or on TV.

All auditions are public.

Art. 5 THE JURY

The jury will be composed of internationally renowned musicians and music teachers. The jury's decisions are non-negotiable, cannot be appealed against and are conclusive. In case that a competitor is a student of a jury member or if the two are related, the jury member in question will abstain from voting. The jury may interrupt a competitor's performance if it is longer than what stated in the regulations. If the jury finds that the competitors are insufficiently prepared, it may decide not to award any prizes. Competitors may register for a higher category, however they must not compete in more categories in the same section. Jury members will award points out of one hundred. The final result will be calculated by making an average of all the votes. If two competitors in the same category are awarded the same number of points (ex aequo), the jury may divide the prize in equal parts.

Art. 6 THE SCORE SYSTEM

The results will be made public after all the competitors in one category will have performed.

from 95 to 100 points: FIRST PRIZE (CERTIFICATE AND MEDAL)
